JNTUA School of Management Studies has various club activities to promote organizing skills, leadership skills and event management skills among students. The clubs are formed based on the specializations that the 1st year students choose during their MBA program. The clubs are

1) Orators and Documentation :

The Orator's Club provides a common platform for eloquent and talented students and provides them an opportunity to showcase their abilities which in turn leads to enhancing self confidence and character building. The smooth and effective working of the Orators' club is ensured by a competent Executive body which works under the guidance of the Faculty. Documentation is any communicable material that is used to describe, explain or instruct regarding some attributes of an procedure.

2) Dancing :

The dance club is no longer an exclusive venue drawing together people with similar musical interests. Instead, it has become the commercialized super club, where profit rather than music is the bottom line.

3) Singing :

Singing Club at The Music Rooms offers all kind of benefits for beginners. Not only is this a relaxed and sociable setting with support and feedback from your singing peers, it is also known that regular singing can improve sleep and help us become more mentally alert... just some of a vast many assets. Come along to The Music Rooms group Singing Club for beginners, the perfect stepping stone to one on one progression.

4) Arts and Crafts:

The Art Club focuses on the expression and the qualitative preoccupation of its members, with various creative activities, promoting, thus, the expression and creativity, and the enhancement of imagination. Many people usually use the term 'art' to refer exclusively to the art of painting.

5) Theatre Arts:

The theatre arts club has carried out stage productions not just for marquee events but also a standalone play nights. With the move to digital, the theatre arts club and its activities evolved to include short films, movie streaming nights and solo acts which have raised the bar of creativity and participation from the cohort”.
